

A wooden platter filled with a variety of food items. In the top left, there is a pile of golden french fries. Next to them are some green leafy vegetables and a single red cherry tomato. To the right, there are several pieces of grilled chicken. In the center and foreground, there are several sausages, some of which are wrapped in a breaded coating. On the right side, there are thin slices of red onion. The entire platter is set against a dark, semi-transparent background.
